Songcheck der „Kirchen in YOU FM“ Song: Kygo, Justin Jesso: „Stargazing“

Ich fühl mich manchmal klein und hoffnungslos. Ich hab vor kurzem meinen Onkel verloren. Das macht mich richtig traurig. Ob es einen Himmel gibt, frag ich mich. Da hat mich der Song „Stargazing“ von Kygo beeindruckt: „Der Himmel kann uns helfen!“ heißt es da:

You're saying it's hopeless that I should hope less

Heaven can help us

well maybe "she" might

Diese Hilfe wünsch ich mir auch manchmal. Jemanden, der alles wieder gut macht. Kygo singt: „Ich schau hoch zum Himmel“. Das fällt mir manchmal gar nicht so leicht: den Kopf nicht hängen zu lassen. Sondern den Blick nach vorne richten. Nicht auf den Boden starren, sondern hoch zum Himmel schauen.

And I will still be here, stargazing

I'll still look up, look up look up for love

Ich probier das manchmal, das „Stargazing“. Ich schau abends in die Sterne und erinnere mich an meinen Onkel. Sie sind immer da. Sie begleiten mich – auch wenn er nicht mehr bei mir ist. Und ich hoffe darauf, dass mein Onkel irgendwo ist, wo ihm auch Sterne leuchten. Wo das Licht niemals aufhört.

Daran denke ich, wenn ich in den Himmel schaue. Das Gefühl gibt mir Hoffnung, wenn ich meinen Onkel vermisse. Genau wie der Song mich stärkt. Er bringt mich dazu, mal wieder meinen Kopf zu heben und in den Himmel zu schauen.

Stars don't disappear, they keep blazing even when the night is over. That's how I find the light.

Kygo - Stargazing - Lyrics

You're saying it's hopeless, that I should hope less Heaven can help us, well maybe "she" might
You say it's beyond us, what is beyond us?
Let's see and decide
We've been meteoric, even before this
Burns half as long when it's twice as bright
So if it's beyond us, then it's beyond us
Let's see and decide

And I will still be here, stargazing
I'll still look up, look up
Look up for love
I will still be here, stargazing
I'll still look up, look up
Look up for love

Don't you, give up, for me
Don't fall, don't give up, for love
Don't you, give up, for me
Don't fall, don't give up, for love
Don't you, give up, for me
Don't fall, don't give up, for love
Don't you, give up, for me
Don't fall, don't give up, for love

I'm trying to save us, you don't wanna save us

You blame human nature, and say it's unkind
Let's make up our own minds, we've got our whole lives
Let's see and decide, decide

And I will still be here, stargazing
I'll still look up, look up
Look up for love
Stars don't disappear, they keep blazing
Even when the night is over
And I will still be here, stargazing
I'll still look up, look up
Look up for love
Stars don't disappear, they keep blazing
Even when the night is over
That's how I find the light

Don't you, give up, for me
Don't fall, don't give up, for love
That's how I find the light
Don't you, give up, for me (oh)
Don't fall, don't give up, for love
Don't you, give up, for me
Don't fall, don't give up, for love
Don't you, give up, for me
Don't fall, don't give up, for love
That's how I find the light
Don't you, give up, for me
Don't fall, don't give up, for love
That's how I find the light
Don't you, give up, for me (oh)
Don't fall, don't give up, for love
